

Application No. 09/810,811
Amendment Dated June 7, 2005
Reply to Office Action of December 10, 2004

AMENDMENTS TO THE SPECIFICATION

Please replace the paragraph at page 10, lines 1-7, with the following rewritten paragraph:

-- The elements thus drawn are digitized as shown in block 160 and a rough animation is prepared as shown in block 165. Sound effects can be added as shown in block 170 and the animation can be revised and edited as shown in block 175. As shown in block 190 the final product files are created when the animation is complete as shown in block 180. The product files of block 190 can include files such as the well known swf files, pdf files, ppt files, or any other type of files suitable for storing the required information in the manner of these well known files. --.
